

SBAC ELA Performance Task Layout for Grades 6-8 and 11:
Part 1, Questions 1-3

Name:
Per:

Step 1: Notice the writing type (narrative, explanatory, argumentative). This is essential for knowing the purpose and structure of your essay.

Step 2: Read the task, directions for beginning, and research questions. Highlight any important pieces of remember.

Step 3: Read all three questions for any important keywords.

Step 4: Skim the sources to begin with. Read the title and first and last line of each source. Highlight any keywords from the questions you notice.

Step 5: Finally, answer the questions in the text boxes, using RACE (Restate, Answer, Cite evidence, Explain) or any other strategies you may have learned. Read and refer back to the sources as often as needed.

Questions 1-3 Performance Task

BackNextSavePause

NotesZoom OutZoom In

Student Directions

Performance Task

Task:

Directions for the entire performance task (parts 1 and 2) will be here. The directions will usually be around 3-4 paragraphs long.

Directions for beginning:

Here it will explain that you will be examining several sources to respond to the performance task.

Research Questions:

Here it will explain that you will answer the three questions on the right. It will also explain how to use the global notes tool.

Part 1

Sources for Performance Task:

Source #1

The following article is from...

Title of Article

By Author

The article for Source #1 will be written here.

References for Source #1 will be listed here.

Source #2

Source #3

Source #4

1

Question 1 will be here with important details in bold.

2

Question 2 will be here with important details in bold.

3

Question 3 will be here with important details in bold. Question 3 usually contains a matrix table, where you will have to choose the sources that match Question 3's claims. It may look similar to the table shown below:

	Source #1	Source #2	Source #3	Source #4
Claim	☐	☐	☐	☐
Claim	☐	☐	☐	☐
Claim	☐	☐	☐	☐
Claim	☐	☐	☐	☐

SBAC ELA Performance Task Layout for Grades 6-8 and 11:

Part 2, Question 4

Name:

Per:

Step 1: Read "Your assignment" first and highlight any important things to remember. *

Step 2: Develop a thesis statement for this assignment and type it into the text box.

Step 3: Develop an essay outline, keeping the writing type in mind.

Step 4: Type out the essay! Go back and forth between the sources to highlight evidence and include it in relevant parts of your essay. Use the essay scoring rubric, online tools, and scratch paper provided to you!

Step 5: After writing the essay, check to see that you've met all three elements of the essay scoring rubric before submitting.

Question 4 Performance Task

 Back  Next  Save  Pause

 Notes  Zoom Out  Zoom In

Student Directions

Performance Task

Task:
Directions for the entire performance task (parts 1 and 2) will be here. The directions will usually be around 3-4 paragraphs long.

Directions for beginning:
Here it will explain that you will be examining several sources to respond to the performance task.

Research Questions:
Here it will explain that you will answer the three questions on the right. It will also explain how to use the global notes tool.

Part 1

Sources for Performance Task:

Source #1
The following article is from...

Title of Article
By Author

The article for Source #1 will be written here.

References for Source #1 will be listed here.

Source #2
Source #3
Source #4

Student Directions

Performance Task

Part 2
You will now review your notes and sources...

Your Assignment:
It's really important that you read these paragraphs here. This is where the detailed prompt to your essay is!

Essay Scoring:
Your essay will be scored with the following three elements, no matter what the writing type.

- Organization/Purpose
- Evidence/elaboration
- Conventions

Now begin work on your essay... More tips for being successful on the performance task will be here, in addition to reminders about the tools that are available to you.

B I U I_x ≡ ≡ ≡ ≡ ✂ 📄 📁 ↶ ↷ ABC Ω

*Everything in the left column is exactly the same as it was on the previous page!

SBAC ELA Performance Task Layout for Grades 6-8 and 11:
Part 1, Questions 1-3

Name:
Per:

Questions 1-3 Performance Task

Back

Next

Save

Pause

Notes

Zoom Out

Zoom In

Student Directions

Performance Task

Task:

Directions for the entire performance task (parts 1 and 2) will be here. The directions will usually be around 3-4 paragraphs long.

Directions for beginning:

Here it will explain that you will be examining several sources to respond to the performance task.

Research Questions:

Here it will explain that you will answer the three questions on the right. It will also explain how to use the global notes tool.

Part 1

Sources for Performance Task:

Source #1

The following article is from...

Title of Article

By Author

The article for Source #1 will be written here.

References for Source #1 will be listed here.

Source #2

Source #3

Source #4

1

Question 1 will be here with important details in bold.

2

Question 2 will be here with important details in bold.

3

Question 3 will be here with important details in bold. Question 3 usually contains a matrix table, where you will have to choose the sources that match Question 3's claims. It may look similar to the table shown below:

	Source #1	Source #2	Source #3	Source #4
Claim	☐	☐	☐	☐
Claim	☐	☐	☐	☐
Claim	☐	☐	☐	☐
Claim	☐	☐	☐	☐

©Exceptional ELA 2018

SBAC ELA Performance Task Layout for Grades 6-8 and 11:

Part 2, Question 4

Name:

Per:

Question 4 Performance Task

Back

Next

Save

Pause

Notes

Zoom Out

Zoom In

Student Directions

____ Performance Task

Task:
Directions for the entire performance task (parts 1 and 2) will be here. The directions will usually be around 3-4 paragraphs long.

Directions for beginning:
Here it will explain that you will be examining several sources to respond to the performance task.

Research Questions:
Here it will explain that you will answer the three questions on the right. It will also explain how to use the global notes tool.

Part 1

Sources for Performance Task:

Source #1
The following article is from...

Title of Article
By Author

The article for Source #1 will be written here.

References for Source #1 will be listed here.

Source #2
Source #3
Source #4

Student Directions

____ Performance Task

Part 2

You will now review your notes and sources...

Your Assignment:
It's really important that you read these paragraphs here. This is where the detailed prompt to your essay is!

Essay Scoring:
Your essay will be scored with the following three elements, no matter what the writing type.

- 1. Organization/Purpose
- 2. Evidence/elaboration
- 3. Conventions

Now begin work on your essay... More tips for being successful on the performance task will be here, in addition to reminders about the tools that are available to you.

B I U I_x ¶ ≡ ≡ ≡ ≡ ✂ 📄 📁 ↶ ↷ ABC Ω

*Everything in the left column is exactly the same as it was on the previous page!

©Exceptional ELA 2018

SBAC ELA Performance Task Writing Rubric: Narrative

Score	4	3	2	1	NS (No Score)
Purpose/ Organization	•Narrative has a fully sustained organization with a natural, logical sequence of events •Plot has a sense of unity and completeness •Setting is established and maintained •Narrator and/or characters are developed •Point of view is maintained (grade 7+ only) •Variety of effective transitions •Effective opening and closure.	•Narrative has an adequately sustained organization with a logical sequence of events •Plot has a sense of unity and completeness but may have minor flaws •Setting is established and maintained •Narrator and/or characters are developed •Point of view is maintained (grade 7+ only) •Variety of adequate transitions •Adequate opening and closure	•Narrative has a somewhat sustained organization with a weak or uneven sequence of events •Plot may be inconsistent with evident flaws •Setting is minimally established or uneven •Narrator and/or characters are minimally developed •Point of view is minimally maintained (grade 7+ only) •Uneven use of transitions. •Weak opening and closure, if present	•Narrative has little or no organization of an event sequence •No discernable plot •Little to no attempt to establish setting •Little to no attempt to develop narrator and/or characters •Little to no attempt to establish point of view (grade 7+ only) •Few or no transitions •Opening and closure may be missing	•Off-topic or off-purpose, copied text, incomprehensible, in a language other than English
Development/ Elaboration	•Narrative provides thorough effective elaboration using relevant details, dialogue, and description •Connections to source materials help enhance narrative •Variety of narrative techniques help advance the story effectively •Sensory, concrete, and figurative language are effective	•Narrative provides adequate elaboration using details, dialogue, and description •Connections to source materials contribute to the narrative •Variety of narrative techniques help advance the story adequately •Sensory, concrete, and figurative language are adequate	•Narrative provides uneven or cursory elaboration using partial details, dialogue, and description •Connections to source materials may be ineffective or awkward •Narrative techniques are uneven and inconsistent •Sensory, concrete, and figurative language are weak or partially used	•Narrative provides minimal elaboration using few or no details, dialogue, and description •Connections to source materials, if used, distract from narrative •Narrative techniques are minimal or absent •Sensory, concrete, and figurative language are partially used or not used at all	•Off-topic or off-purpose, copied text, incomprehensible, in a language other than English

Score	2	1	0	NS (No Score)
Conventions	Adequate use of grammar, capitalization, spelling, and sentence formation	Limited use of grammar, capitalization, spelling, and sentence formation	Infrequent use of grammar, capitalization, spelling, and sentence formation	Off-topic or off-purpose, copied text, incomprehensible, in a language other than English *Off-purpose responses still receive a conventions score.

SBAC ELA Performance Task Writing Rubric: Narrative Checklist

Purpose/Organization	Development/Elaboration	Conventions
☐ My narrative has a fully sustained organization with a natural, logical sequence of events. ☐ My plot has a sense of unity and completeness. ☐ I have established and maintained a setting. ☐ I developed my narrator and/or characters appropriately. ☐ I maintained my choice of point of view (grade 7+ only). ☐ I used a variety of effective transitions. ☐ I have an effective opening and closure.	☐ My narrative uses relevant details. ☐ My narrative uses relevant dialogue. ☐ My narrative uses relevant description. ☐ I connect my narrative to source materials to help enhance my story. ☐ I used a variety of narrative techniques help advance the story effectively. ☐ I used a variety of sensory, concrete, and figurative language.	☐ I have used correct grammar. ☐ I have used correct capitalization. ☐ I have used correct spelling. ☐ I have used correct sentence formation (no run-on sentences).

Comments/Notes: _____

SBAC ELA Performance Task Writing Rubric: Informative-Explanatory

Score	4	3	2	1	NS (No Score)
Purpose/ Organization	•Response has a clear and effective organized structure with a logical progression from beginning to end •Strong connections between ideas. •Controlling/main idea is clear •Focus is strongly maintained for the purpose and audience. •Transitions are effective •Effective introduction and conclusion	•Response has a clear organized structure with minor flaws and adequate progression from beginning to end •Some ideas may be loosely connected •Controlling/main idea is clear •Focus is mostly maintained for the purpose and audience •Transitions are adequate •Adequate introduction and conclusion	•Response has an inconsistent structure and flaws are clear with uneven progression of ideas from beginning to end •Some ideas are inconsistent or have unclear connections. •Controlling/main idea may be somewhat unclear •Focus is not maintained well from purpose and audience. •Transitions are inconsistent. •Introduction and conclusion are weak, if present	•Response has little or no structure with an unclear or randomized progression of ideas •Controlling/main idea is confusing •Focus has drifted far from the purpose and audience •Few transitions, if any •Introduction and conclusion may be missing	•Off-topic or off-purpose, copied text, incomprehensible, in a language other than English
Evidence/ Elaboration	•Response provides convincing support/evidence for the controlling and supporting ideas and is integrated clearly •References and/or personal experiences are relevant and effective •Vocabulary is appropriate for the purpose and audience	•Response provides adequate support/evidence for the controlling and supporting ideas and is integrated mostly clearly •Some references and/or personal experiences may be general but adequate •Vocabulary is mostly appropriate for the purpose and audience	•Response provides uneven support/evidence for the controlling and supporting ideas and is integrated weakly •References and/or personal experiences are limited and simplistic •Vocabulary is somewhat ineffective for the purpose and audience	•Response provides minimal support/evidence for the controlling and supporting ideas •Minimal references or personal experiences, if any •Vocabulary is limited and ineffective for the purpose and audience	•Off-topic or off-purpose, copied text, incomprehensible, in a language other than English

Score	2	1	0	NS (No Score)
Conventions	Adequate use of grammar, capitalization, spelling, and sentence formation	Limited use of grammar, capitalization, spelling, and sentence formation	Infrequent use of grammar, capitalization, spelling, and sentence formation	Off-topic or off-purpose, copied text, incomprehensible, in a language other than English *Off-purpose responses still receive a conventions score.

SBAC ELA Performance Task Writing Rubric: Informative-Explanatory Checklist

Purpose/Organization	Evidence/Elaboration	Conventions
☐ My response has a clear and effective organized structure with a logical progression from beginning to end. ☐ I have made strong connections between ideas. ☐ My controlling/main idea is clear. ☐ My focus is strongly maintained for the purpose and audience. ☐ I have effective transitions. ☐ I have an effective and complete introduction and conclusion.	☐ My response provides convincing support/evidence for the controlling and supporting ideas. ☐ I've integrated my support/evidence clearly. ☐ I've used references and/or personal experiences that are relevant and effective. ☐ I've used appropriate vocabulary for the purpose and audience.	☐ I have used correct grammar. ☐ I have used correct capitalization. ☐ I have used correct spelling. ☐ I have used correct sentence formation (no run-on sentences).

Comments/Notes: _____

SBAC ELA Performance Task Writing Rubric: Argumentative

Score	4	3	2	1	NS (No Score)
Purpose/ Organization	•Response has clear and effective organized structure with a logical progression from beginning to end •Strong connections between ideas •Claim is introduced, communicated clearly, and strongly maintained throughout •Transitions are effective •Effective introduction and conclusion •Alternate and opposing arguments are clearly acknowledged or addressed (grade 7+ only)	•Response has clear organized structure with minor flaws and adequate progression from beginning to end •Some ideas may be loosely connected •Claim is clear and mostly maintained throughout. •Transitions are adequate •Adequate introduction and conclusion •Alternate and opposing arguments are adequately acknowledged or addressed (grade 7+ only)	•Response has an inconsistent structure and flaws are clear with uneven progression of ideas from beginning to end •Some ideas are inconsistent or have unclear connections •Claim is somewhat unclear and may not be fully maintained throughout •Transitions are inconsistent •Introduction and conclusion are weak, if present •Alternate and opposing arguments are not acknowledged or confusing (grade 7+ only)	•Response has little or no structure with an unclear or randomized progression of ideas •Claim is confusing or unclear •Few transitions, if any •Introduction and conclusion may be missing •Alternate and opposing arguments may not be acknowledged (grade 7+ only)	•Off-topic or off-purpose, copied text, incomprehensible, in a language other than English
Evidence/ Elaboration	•Response provides convincing and comprehensive support/evidence for the argument and claim and is integrated clearly •References from the source material and/or personal experiences are relevant and specific •Vocabulary is appropriate for the purpose and audience	•Response provides adequate support/evidence for the argument and claim and is integrated mostly clearly •Some references from the source material and/or personal experiences may be general but adequate •Vocabulary is mostly appropriate for the purpose and audience	•Response provides uneven support/evidence for the argument and claim and is integrated weakly •References from the source material and/or personal experiences are limited or repetitive, may rely on emotional appeal •Vocabulary is somewhat ineffective for the purpose and audience	•Response provides minimal support/evidence for argument and claim •Minimal references from the source material or personal experiences, if any, may be incorrectly used •Vocabulary is limited and ineffective for the purpose and audience	•Off-topic or off-purpose, copied text, incomprehensible, in a language other than English

Score	2	1	0	NS (No Score)
Conventions	Adequate use of grammar, capitalization, spelling, and sentence formation	Limited use of grammar, capitalization, spelling, and sentence formation	Infrequent use of grammar, capitalization, spelling, and sentence formation	Off-topic or off-purpose, copied text, incomprehensible, in a language other than English *Off-purpose responses still receive a conventions score.

SBAC ELA Performance Task Writing Rubric: Argumentative Checklist

Purpose/Organization	Evidence/Elaboration	Conventions
☐ My response has a clear and effective organized structure with a logical progression from beginning to end. ☐ I have made strong connections between ideas. ☐ I have introduced and communicated my claim clearly. ☐ I have strongly maintained my claim throughout my response. ☐ I have effective transitions. ☐ I have an effective and complete introduction and conclusion. ☐ I have clearly acknowledged and addressed alternate and opposing arguments (grade 7+ only).	☐ My response provides convincing and comprehensive support/evidence for the argument and claim. ☐ I've integrated my evidence clearly throughout my response. ☐ I've used references from the source material and/or personal experiences that are relevant and specific. ☐ I've used appropriate vocabulary for the purpose and audience.	☐ I have used correct grammar. ☐ I have used correct capitalization. ☐ I have used correct spelling. ☐ I have used correct sentence formation (no run-on sentences).

Comments/Notes: _____
