

Characterization Trait Tracker “Wolfzel and Growltel”
Possible Trait	Is there Textual Evidence ?	Is it Consistent ?	Is it Patterned ?	Is it Psychologically Revealing ?	Final Judgment
Look for anything in the story that seems to show what the character is like. This could be something they do, say, think, feel, or how others treat them.	What text evidence supports this trait? Look for at least two types of STEAL : Speech, Thoughts, Effect on Others, Actions, or Looks.	Does the trait show up more than once? Can you find at least two different parts of the story where the character acts this way?	Is this trait part of who the character is overall? Is it fair to say this trait describes the character across the story , not just in one moment?	Does this trait tell you something deeper about the character? Does it reveal something about how they think, feel, or make choices —not just what they do?	Is this a true trait or just a surface detail?
